CALL FOR PAPERS

The Cambridge Initiative for Market Studies is proud to host the 13th Oligo Workshop, taking place June 2-3, 2025 over two full days at the Cambridge Judge Business School, University of Cambridge.

Keynote speakers:

Steven Tadelis (UC Berkeley)

Xavier Vives (IESE Business School)

Local organizers: Flavio Toxvaerd, Christos Genakos

Interested researchers and PhD students are cordially invited to submit papers to be considered for the program. Papers should be submitted no later than February 28th, 2025 at:

<https://oligoworkshop2025.econ.cam.ac.uk/oligo-2024-submission-form/>

Submissions from all areas related to microeconomic theory are welcome, including (but not limited to):

- Algorithmic pricing
- Auctions
- Collective decision making
- Collusion, cartels and mergers
- Contests and tournaments
- Dynamic models and timing
- Economics of blockchain
- Environmental industrial economics
- Imperfect competition
- Information economics
- Institutional design
- Market design
- Mechanism design
- Networks
- Platform competition and two-sided markets
- Price competition
- Procurement
- Product differentiation
- Quantity competition
- R&D
- Spatial competition
- Supply chains and vertical competition

The workshop has a tradition for semi-plenary sessions with each presentation being followed by a brief discussion. Participants are therefore expected to discuss one paper in their field of interest. Authors of accepted papers can expect to be notified by end of March, 2025. For further information, please visit the society website at www.oligo-society.org. For further details and to submit manuscripts, please visit the workshop website.
